TUSHAR SINGH

Has performed since 2004, and is a fixture on the East Coast Comedy Scene. He moonlights as a journalist, working on projects for the NPR radio show called Radiolab. In true South Asian form, he begrudgingly works as an engineer during the day. His anecdotal-style comedy attempts to make sense of the cultural disconnects experienced by first generation Asian Americans.

STEVE BYRNE

Steve Byrne's high energy, physical style of comedy make him one of the hottest young comedians touring the country today. He was born to a Korean mother and an Irish father, which provides him with a wealth of material. His new hour special, Steve Byrne's Happy Hour, premiered on Comedy Central earlier this year to rave reviews. He was appeared in films with Jeremy Piven in The Goods, as well as with Vince Vaughn and Reese Witherspoon in Four Christmases. A series regular on NBC's The Real Wedding Crashers. Steve has appeared on NBC's The Tonight Show, ABC's Jimmy Kimmel Live, CBS's The Late Late Show and BET's Comic View. Steve has been a featured comic at The Just For Laughs Festival in Montreal, The HBO US Comedy Arts Festival in Las Vegas and The CanWest Comedy Fest in Vancouver. He has featured for USO tours in the Middle East with Colin Quinn and Drew Carrey. He has been part of several national comedy tours including The Jameson Comedy Tour, Vince Vaughn's Wild West Comedy Tour, and his own national My Space comedy tour. Steve's Comedy Central half hour special was voted one of the best of all time in the Comedy Central Standup Showdown. Steve's lack of ego and outstanding work ethic make him one of the most sought after comedians in clubs and colleges across the country.

PAUL VARGHESE

Was tormented on a daily basis by the class clowns. So he became a comedian, hoping that one day he might bump into his former class clowns at a comedy club somewhere and exact revenge. Come join him on his journey. He's been seen on Last Comic Standing 2 and Comedy Central's Live at Gotham. Russell Peters has recently tapped this talented young comic to open for him this summer on his multi-city tour.
